The case seems to deserve favorable consideration, but the allowance recommended is too much.

½ a seer of rice and ½ an anna per diem for condiments seem quite sufficient.

The savings available amount only to 8 Rs per mensem

Sir,

With reference to official memorandum no: 7L 8323 dated 2nd June 1906, from the Secretary to the Government of Mysore, Revenue & General departments forwarding for disposal the petition of Hayath Khan, residing at Bettabanajenahalli in the Kolar Taluk praying for the daily grant of rice from Darga for his maintenance, I have the honor to submit herewith correspondence ending with Kolar Division Assistant Commissioner's yadi no. 1271 dated 9th April 09, on the subject and to state as follows -

2. The Assistant Commissioner, Kolar Division reports that the petitioner Bayatthkhan is a very old, blind and destitute and is quite unable to attend the Langer-khana at Kolar Dargah to receive the boiled rice, as he resides in a village far off from Dargah. Moreover he has no helpmates to get the same for him to his residence in the village.

3. Considering the helpless state of the petitioner and the fact ~~aside the fact~~ that he is not likely to live long, I would recommend that an allowance of a seer of rice and an anna per a day may be granted to the petitioner for his life from the savings of Rs 8/- out of the amount sanctioned for remembrance of Kolar Dargah.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant
